

Why do I need an insurance valuation?

- Your household contents may be under insured, which in the event of a claim would dramatically affect the amount recoverable
- An insurance valuation gives you peace of mind knowing the value of your household contents
- Insurers will normally pay out more readily upon an agreed valuation
- The claims process is speeded up
- A fully itemised report could reduce your premium
- Illustrated reports aid the Police in tracing and recovering stolen property

With offices and Salerooms in Bedford, St Neots and Leamington Spa, we are one of the largest independent chattel auction and valuation companies in the UK.

Our extensive sales calendar gives us knowledge of current values on a wide range of furniture and related items.
